Dulles' rejection of the Commu-nist proposal for Korea was the first positive action actually to be taken inside the former Palace of Nations where the conference is being held. What action there has been and decisions made mostly have been in private meetings among the Big Three of the United States, Britain and France or in some connection with Russia as a member of the Big Four.

Dulles told the conference's

Fall of Base Inevitable
The Communist North Korean proposal, introduced Tuesday by Red Foreign Minister Nam II, had called for a Korean settlement based on Soviet-styled rigged elections and withdrawal of all foreign troops within six months.

Even as Molotov and Bidault talked, information reached Western delegates that the fall of Dien Bien Phu was inevitable and that the Communists could have taken it at any time in the past five days but apparently had held off for political reasons.

The Western Big Three, press-ing urgently to get the explosive Indochina issue moved forward on the conference agenda, still hoped to find a formula which would bring the formal attention of the Geneva conference to Indochina within 10 days.
Positioned Weakened

Western sources said earlier the Big Three's position in the forth-coming Indochinese peace talks had been weakened by Prime Minister Winston Churchill's rejection of immediate military intervention

Churchill's statement to the House of Commons was regarded by some quarters as a develop-ment that offset an advantage the Allies gained by France's decision to grant full independence to Viet Nam, one of the three associated states of Indochina.

Sleepy Sleeper For the Derby IN THE Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (P-Nothing is going to beat Correlation in the Kentucky Derby come Saturday but Fearless Fraley has a sleepy sleeper for the longshot brigade which, if it ever gets off the same afternoon, may be making a good run at the front end when they hit the finish line.

My equine hopeful is a nag named King Phalanx.

Don't, for goodness sakes, bet the rent money on this molasses-footed animal. He is, as I have indicated, the sleepiest haybag who ever took a snooze in the starting gate while his opposition cantered happily on its way. And even when the starting bell wakes him up, he seems to yawn and stretch far too long before he saunters out for

Five Mine Deaths During March

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Accidents in Illinois coal mines caused five deaths and 106 non-fatal injuries during March, B. H. Schull, director of the Department of Mines and Minerals, said today.

Two of the deaths resulted from an explosion at a Fulton county strip mine. Haulage accidents in Saline and Williamson county mines caused two deaths, and another was caused by machinery a Jackson county mine.

With Illinois coal production totaling 3,508,748 tons for the month, Schull said the number of tons produced per fatality was 701,749, and tons produced per non-fatal acci-dent amounted to 33,101.

Eisenhower Decision Against Political Campaigning is Folding Under Pressure

Eisenhower's decision against involvement in local congressional election campaigns is folding unier pressure.

That the decision would not hold vas forecast last year when the President announced it. That it is not holding was sufficiently evident after Mr. Eisenhower's swing through Kentucky last week.

It was not mere chance that elaced Kentucky's Republican Sen. John Sherman Cooper at the President's elbow when he traveled in that state. Cooper, up for reelection this year, has drawn former Vice President Alben W. Barkley as his Democratic opponent

The presidential party with Cooper prominently displayed, shifted from closed to open automobiles to parade into the larger towns visited last week. That would be a maneuver dictated by political necessity rather than Mr. Eisenhower's preference. The President was giving Cooper what the politicians call a coat-tail ride-appearing with him in public in an effort to translate some of the assumed presidential prestige into votes for the local party candidate. Early for Campaigning

The Kentucky invitation to the and applaud contrasted with Mr. Eisenhower's habit in solidly Democratic Georgia where he prefers to golf. There he is whisked from airport to tee by routes least likely to be lined by citizens who are going to vote Democratic, anyway, no matter low loudly they might cheer. It still is a bit early for presidential campaigning. The tempo will pick up after Mr. Eisenhower goes to Denver where he hopes to remain from late July until mid-
